REMARKS

25X1

1. The number of covered twin-engine planes with double rudder assemblies which were previously seen at the Welzow (N 52/A 44) airfield was increased to about 60 on 10 July 1950. * A German employee at the field said that a second unit had arrived from Dresden (N 52/F 29). Seven biplanes were also parked at the field. According to statements by local residents, no flights have been made recently.

* [redacted] Comment. In June 1950 [redacted] between 28 and 36 planes were parked at the airfield. [redacted] One bomber regiment was believed to be stationed there. This is the first report that the number of planes had increased.

 Comment. Possibly another bomber unit. The transfer of another unit to Welzow has not been confirmed.
